4. GENERAL BUSINESS

- Phil welcomed everyone. Changes have been made to this coming season, Pennant has been addressed and will be reviewed after this season.
- One on One Meetings with Clubs, President Meetings and Delegates Meetings with BNW will continue.

BRAINSTORMING IDEAS

- Start time re: Pennant – clubs can ask for a change of start time as per by-laws, this is between clubs to organise.
- Pennant Break time – this is also between clubs to organise. A short break is allowed for 'Duty of Care'.
- Come Try Month – October
- BNW Program – go to other sports and promote bowls
- Coastal Championships – Singles (must have), do we still have other Coastal Championships?
- Twilight games to encourage new bowlers
- What can we offer the public?
- BPL format – Social – Friday Night or other night games?
- Commercial for Bowls – Social Media, Sports personalities
- Ticket to Play
- Jack Attack Kits – BNW to fund
- Vet Days – cost to increase to $20
- BPL/Twilight Roster
- Winner of Final to be Promoted?
- Clubs to have Covid Plan in place. Look at numbers for club rooms for staggered breaks. Vet Day meals – staggered.

Recommendations to BNW Board

- Jack Attack Kit
- BPL/Twilight Roster
- Vet Day Cost - $20
- Advertising for Bowls
